

This message is sent on behalf of Peter Stoffer, Official Opposition for Veterans Affairs

Dear friends,

The other day at a meeting of the Standing Committee on Veterans Affairs, Eve Adams, the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of Veterans Affairs, offered to assist all veterans' having difficulty with any program or service with Veterans Affairs Canada.

Ms. Adams said, "Mr. Godin, you indicated that you've got all sorts of case files at your constituency office. I would implore you to send them to us."

As Ms. Adams is the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of Veterans Affairs, we can only assume that she is more than willing to help you as she stated above. The Conservative government really believes that everything is fine with veterans and their families. But as you know, many veterans and their families have difficulty obtaining assistance or accessing veterans' programs and services.

I would encourage you to take Ms. Adams up on her offer and contact her office for assistance with any of your concerns. Please let her know about any difficulties or concerns you have with veterans programs or services. Be persistent as she has said that she wants to help. Please also pass this message along to your contacts.

Ms. Adams can be reached at the following contact information.
